

ACU: BOOKS AND MORE

JOIN A TEAM OR CLUB

ACU has a long tradition of supporting organisations run by students, for students, that are stimulating, fun and a great way to meet new people.

If sport is your thing, there is a wide range of teams on each campus which compete in everything from oztag and netball, to beach volleyball, basketball and badminton.

Each year students get the chance to represent ACU at the Australian University Games and University Championship Snow Sports, or battle it out between the six ACU campuses at ACU Games.

If business is what interests you, the Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE) use their economics, finance and business skills to deliver community outreach programs. A global non-profit organisation, SIFE is run at more than 1,700 universities in 42 countries.

Then there are the performing arts clubs, choirs and ACU Wired – a national radio station run by staff and students from a recording studio on each campus.

If you can't find a club dedicated to your particular passion or hobby, then why not start your own? ACU encourages the creation of new clubs and societies, and is always looking for ways to help bring your campus to life.

INDIGENOUS SUPPORT

ACU is committed to providing accessible education for Indigenous Australians, and received the maximum five-star rating for Indigenous Participation in The Good Universities Guide for 2012.

Indigenous higher education units on each campus focus on the provision of academic, personal and cultural support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

Flexible undergraduate courses are also available, allowing Indigenous students to live and work in their own communities, while travelling to Sydney or Brisbane to complete the face-to-face component of their course.

Ongoing assignments, further study and online learning are completed throughout the year from their home base.

CHANTELLE STENNER BACHELOR OF NURSING

"ACU is a not just a great place to study, but a great place to meet new people. There is a huge range of cultural diversity and getting to know other students from different cultures and learn about their traditions has been a highlight for me.

There are also lots of social activities to get involved in. I played in the Indigenous All Stars team at ACU Games and we had a great time - I'm looking forward to doing it again next year!

I'm really enjoying my course and glad I decided to study at ACU. It has an excellent learning environment, great support, and is welcoming to everyone."

ACU NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

ACUNSA is the national representative body for students on campus. It comprises the Presidents of each of the six individual Student Associations and the Student Senator.

ACUNSA manages the Student Advocacy Service, and aims to promote the welfare and interests of students, ensure they have a voice at executive level and generate an active university social life.

ACUNSA runs a range of events and programs throughout the year.
