KOORI OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY SCHEME SCHOLARSHIP

The Koori Occupational Therapy Scheme is delighted to announce a scholarship to support First Australian students studying Occupational Therapy. This scholarship reflects the vision of the Koori Occupational Therapy Scheme – to actively encourage and advocate for increased First Australian representation in the Occupational Therapy profession.

Eligibility
- Applicants must be a First Australian (please attach Certificate of Aboriginality)
- Be enrolled in and studying Occupational Therapy at one of the following universities with an intake of Victorian students – La Trobe, Deakin, Monash, Charles Sturt or Australian Catholic University

How to apply
- Complete an application letter outlining why you are studying Occupational Therapy and how you could use the money to support your study (eg. money towards books, managing rural placements, cost of living expenses)
- Applications will be received throughout the year
- Any candidates can re-apply in subsequent years

Requirements
- Scholarship recipients will send a letter at the end of the year in which the scholarship is awarded informing the KOTS Committee of how the money supported their study, to help the Committee plan for future scholarship allocations. Successful candidates will also be asked to complete a brief feedback form.

Value
- Up to $1000 will be offered per student per year and will be distributed over the two semesters
